

Arlington, MN (September 22, 2007)--Countryside Refrigeration and Heating sponsored a great night of racing with three out of the six feature winners making a "clean sweep" for the evening. In the Liberty Station Hobby a feature Todd Rossing of Hanska was one of the sweep winners as he held off Dan Dhaene of Henderson for the iwn. Chris Plamann of Hutchinson had a great run picking up 3rd place ahead of Patrick Kohn of Hutchinson. Greg Mathews ended his year great winning the Yellow Book Hobby B Feature ahead of Joe Pommerer of Litchfield. Chad Forwengler of New Ulm took 3rd as he was an early leader. Tyler Limoges of Redwood Falls did a great job holding off Darrell Torgerson of Mankato in the Midwest Modified feature to take another victory this season. He also won his heat race. Randy Schumm of Rogers took 3rd. In the Annihilator IMCA Stock Car feature the battle was furious between the top drivers. Brent Uecker of Hutchinson came out the winner ahead of Jeff McCollum of Mankato and Dan Mackenthun of Hamburg. Mackenthun and Rick Mees of Mankato were battling for the top point position and Mackenthun won the title as he finished ahead of Mees. Dan Grams of Gaylord won the U.S. ARMY IMCA Sprint feature for the 2nd consecutive week. He had a commanding lead ahead of Bruce Allen of Mankato the entire race. Shannon Eriksen took 3rd ahead of Brett Allen of Kasota who had started 12th. Jesse Smith of Mankato is the point champion in this class. The 93 KXLP IMCA Modified feature saw four different leaders but it was the last lap that counted as Damon Haslip of Waseca picked up another win. He was also a clean sweep winner for the night and the WW Will and Sons Hot Dog Hardcharger winner as he passed 16 cars. Chad Porter of Madison Lake took 2nd and Larry Revier of Olivia took 3rd.
